SNAPPERS REFORM OLD TOPERS.

Get Into Lockup and Prisoners Mistrust Their Eyes, Their Eyes.

Sharog, Pa., August 14 Ear-splitting screams caused the reserves in the police station which adjoins the fail here to make a rush for the alcoholic ward of the latter institution. When the policemen arrived on the scene they were confronted by a dozen rold rounders." In paroxysms of fear, pointing at several crawing enapping-turtles and implering "them to be taken away." Several begged for pledges to sign.

The snappers had been left in a cell by Turnkey J. K. Werner, and had escaped from the bag in which they had been placed.

John Knapp, a boss on the Job, was taken into custody to explain who so rudely communicated to Bundy the information he was wanted.

CARRIES COFFIN ON VOYAGE. Wealthy Widow Caimly Prepares for the Inevitable.

New York, August II.—On the Metapan, of the United Fruit Line, which safled for South American ports, went a woman who is probably making her last turn on life's voyage. She is Mrs Paul A. De Diaz, a wealthy widow of Valparaiso, Chile. She is still handsome at the age of forty-five, and her face bears little trace of the malady which has afflicted her for years and which may bring death to her before the Metapan's voyage ends.
